

or the Seven Thunders of Revelation.

That is the mission of the Angel of the Lord Jesus Christ: To speak the Message that corresponds to our time.

The Seven Thunders utter their voices in the Second Coming of the Lord through His Angel Messenger for all the elect. It is the Lord Jesus Christ through His Angel Messenger speaking to His people and revealing to them the mystery for which there was silence in Heaven for half an hour: Revealing to them the Seventh Seal, the Second Coming of the Lord with His Angels calling the elect with a Great Voice of Trumpet.

There we can see the Coming of the Lord with His Angels and the mission of the Lord with His Angels through His Angel Messenger: He comes for the blessing of all the elect; He comes to call and gather all the elect, and give them the faith to be transformed and to be raptured.

The faith for the transformation and the rapture is given to each one of the elect through the Seven Thunders of Revelation, chapter 10, which utter their voices here on Earth through the Angel Messenger of the Lord Jesus Christ; his Message is the Message of the Seven Thunders of Revelation. That is his ministry, that is his mission here on Earth, for the Lord Jesus Christ to produce the resurrection of the dead and the transformation of the living.

1399 – “God does His Own choosing, by predestination, chose the prophets for every age. Notice it. He fixes the nature of that prophet to fit that age. See, He fits his style, whatever he does. He fits him whether he’s educated or not educated. He fits the gifts, the manner that he’ll preach in, the gifts he’ll have. And the Message for that certain age, God’s predestinated that certain thing to happen and there’s not another thing can take its place. Care what it is, how many man-made achievements, nothing can take its place. He predestinated the man, maybe a ignorant man. He might have predestinated him another kind of a man. Whatever he is, He gives him his class, his—his gift, give him his nature, his style, and whatever it is, how he expresses himself, and whatever he does. He makes the man of the hour to catch the people of the hour. Right. He does it.”

Rev. William M. Branham

1502 – “Now, remember, ‘The Word of the Lord comes to the prophet,’ not the theologian. The prophet, he is a reflector of God’s Word. He can’t say nothing; he can’t say his own thoughts. He can only speak what God reveals. Even to the prophet Balaam when he was tried to be sold, sell his right, he said, ‘How can any prophet say anything but what God puts in his mouth?’ It’s a thing that God does, that you can't say nothing else. And you're born that way. / But nobody set before a prophet, 'cause he was—he was absolutely the Word of God. He was that Word in his day. You seen God reflect.”

1513 – “A prophet is a reflector of God. He is made so that he cannot speak his own words. It has to be God's Words that he speaks. He's just like a reflector, and he is God's mouthpiece.”

THE CHILDREN OF GOD IN THE HOUSE OF GOD

And the people who have believed in Christ as their Savior and haven't received His Holy Spirit at the time of the full manifestation of God, where the dead in Christ will be resurrected and we will be transformed, where the adoption of the children of God, which is the transformation of our bodies, the redemption of our bodies, will be carried out...; all who have belonged to any part of the Tabernacle of God, will be hearing the Voice of God, the Voice of Jesus Christ, in His final manifestation from the Most Holy Place.

And there the remnant of the different ages will hear, which, although their age is over and is already dead, they are still believers in the Message of a past age, therefore they are remnants of those past ages. And since their age is no longer in effect, then they will be in the Outer Court listening to the Voice that goes forth from the Most Holy Place to all people.

Look at all that James and John and the mother of James and John were looking for. But if they received that blessing at that time, they were going to do something out of time; because they would be receiving the ministry of Moses and Elijah; ministry where the living in Christ that will be transformed are represented: They are represented in Elijah, and the dead in Christ that will be resurrected are represented in Moses. And the Mystical Body of Christ hadn't yet been completed; it hadn't even begun, for it began on the Day of Pentecost.

So we can see that God doesn't do things before the time, nor does He grant anyone anything before the time; He only reflects the things that He is going to do, He reflects them, but He doesn't fulfill them until the time comes.

They were the “Sons of thunder,” that is, Jesus named them “Sons of thunder.”<sup>1</sup> Why? Because the ministry they were looking for was the ministry of Moses and Elijah, it was the ministry of the Thunder of God, the Voice of God for the end of time, the Voice that comes from the Throne of God, the Voice of the Seven Thunders of Revelation, chapter 10.

THE ANGEL OF JESUS AND HIS MISSION ON EARTH

In the seven ages of the gentile Church there were seven Thunders, because a Thunder is the Voice of God speaking; and in the seven ages of the gentile Church there were seven Thunders speaking through each one of the messengers, angel messengers of the seven ages or seven stages of the gentile Church.

And just as in each of the messengers God thundered, spoke; God speaks consecutively in the Age of the Cornerstone. And this form of God speaking consecutively in the Age of the Cornerstone is nothing less than the Seven Thunders of Revelation, chapter 10, making known the revelation, the manifestation of the Lord Jesus Christ in His Second Coming, with His Angels, in the Age of the Cornerstone. And only being in the Age of the Cornerstone can one see and understand the Second Coming of the Lord, of the Son of Man with His Angels, and one can hear and understand the Great Voice of Trumpet or Last Trumpet, or Trumpet of the Year of Jubilee,
