

image of the beast, and those who will worship the beast and the image of the beast, will be on the side of the yellow horse rider of Revelation, chapter 6, verses 7 to 8; and they will be defeated by Christ our beloved Lord and Savior.

Well, we have seen this of KORAH'S REBELLION in prophetic terms. And any rebellion that rises up against Christ and His Program for our time, it doesn't matter if they are even people who have been related to the Program that God is carrying out at this time: if they rise up against God's Program and make war against it, they will be framed in Korah, Dathan, Abiram and all those who joined them; in other words, they will have the same payment.

We need to have the guidance of the Spirit of God, the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of Christ; and the Church of Jesus Christ has always had that in every age through the manifestation of the Spirit of Christ through the messenger of each age; that is how it is for the Church of Jesus Christ as the Mystical Body of believers.

In the end time, in the Last Day, is that the enemy, the antichrist, the beast, comes like a river; that is, he comes with armies, with nations: the nations and armies of the ten kings that give him their power and authority; and he comes to destroy, he comes to kill all those who don't agree with him. And whosoever doesn't have the mark of the beast will neither buy nor sell; but God said that he will lift up a standard against him.

That standard raised against the enemy is Jesus Christ manifested in all His fullness in human flesh through His Angel Messenger, in the full manifestation of the power of God in the Last Day, when the squeeze comes; and then there the Third Pull will be seen in all its fullness being manifested. And that which was seen in part (that is, as a sample) manifested in the seventh angel messenger, the Reverend William Marrion Branham, will be seen manifested in all its fullness.

And now, we can see how the people that will rise against Christ and His Program relevant to His Second Coming, will fall into that rebellion, they will be framed in that rebellion of Korah with his entourage; which happened back in the time of Moses, and which is type and figure of the rebellion that will rise against the Second Coming of Christ with His elect, with whom He comes in this end time and to whom He comes.

Now, we can see that every person living on this planet Earth has the opportunity to receive the Program of God relevant to our time, and must be aware that there will be struggles and that there will be people who will not receive it and will rise up against the Program of God.

You see, a first cousin of Moses was the one who stood up against Moses: Korah, a descendant of Levi, and a descendant of whom? Of Kohath. And Kohath was the father of whom? Of Amram, the father of Moses; and he was also the father (of whom?) of Izhar, the father of Korah; first cousins; and you see, they take two routes.

Now, we can see that the movement of Korah had strength, but God destroyed that movement. And the movement of the beast and the image of the beast, and the ten kings who will give their power and authority to the beast, will have some strength; but the Lamb will overcome them, because He is King of kings and Lord of lords.

(...) Now, we can see that Moses had enemies from the outside and enemies within the nation itself, that is why they rebelled against Moses on 10 occasions, and they almost stoned Moses on 10 occasions.

And now, from the midst of Christianity, in addition to all the enemies that Jesus Christ has in the other religions of other nations and pagan religions, now they will arise from the midst of Christianity itself. Enemies have always risen, and that is where the antichrist comes from: From Christianity itself; and that is where the struggle comes from, and that is where the strongest struggle will be taking place (and has always taken place). It is within Christianity itself that Christ has had the strongest struggle, where they have risen up against Christ.

Now, we can see this mystery and we can see that Korah represents the antichrist, the man of sin; and Dathan and Abiram and On, and those top leaders of the Hebrew people who joined Dathan and Korah and Abiram, represent those nations and those kings who will join the beast, the antichrist, and give him their power and their authority.

Now, the devil offered Christ the kingdoms of this world, that is, he offered Him the kingdom of the gentiles. And what did the devil tell Jesus? That Jesus had to grant worship to the devil; in other words, it would be a kingdom with satanic worship. And that is the same of the beast and the image of the beast, and those ten kings that give their power and authority to the beast. And that was the same of Dathan, Korah and Abiram.

And now, we can see how Christ rejected that offer of the devil. But notice that the beast and the image of the beast, and those who worship the beast and the image, are worshiping whom? It says that they worship the demons, the devil; that is satanic worship, which the beast and the image of the beast have in that kingdom, in that empire of the gentiles.

And for the Last Day there will come a very great squeeze for all the sons and daughters of God; but there they will be next to Christ; next to Christ, who will be manifesting the ministries of the Angels of the Son of Man, which are the ministries of Moses, Elijah and also the ministry of Jesus. And the victory is prophesied, therefore, it is certain. For whom? For Christ and His Church, for Christ and His mighty Army.

Now we can see which side we are on: we are on the side of the white horse Rider of Revelation 19. But the beast and the
